

WELCOME TO BOSTON

Get ready to amp-up your stay in New England's most revolutionary city. Whether you're visiting for work or play, we've got you covered with the coolest, locals-only tips to maximize your stay.

Magnolia Bakery
Faneuil Hall Market Place
Financial District, Boston

New York City's favorite bakery is finally opening a sister shop in New England's premiere city. Magnolia Bakery opened its doors less than a month ago to Boston's residents and is now shaking up the scene in Faneuil Hall.

This little cupcake-centric shop was made famous during the cupcake boom in the 2000's primarily from mentions in shows such as Saturday Night Live and Sex and the City.

Their flavors range from classics such as Black & White, Carrot, and Confetti to more adventurous flavors such as Peanut Butter & Jelly and Hummingbird (banana, pineapple and pecan).

Don't get it twisted- Magnolia is not just a cupcake shop, it is a full fledged bakery. And for the opening of their first shop in Boston, head baker, Bobbie Lloyd, wanted to do something special. She decided that she would introduce Boston Cream Pie banana pudding and will exclusively have it available at the Boston location.

INSIDER TIP For Magnolia Bakery's founder, Bobbie Floyd, coming to Boston was full circle. She spent her years learning her craft at a local culinary institute right in downtown Boston.

Tokyo Police Club
House of Blues
Thursday, 4/26 @ 7PM

Tokyo Police Club will be taking over Boston this Thursday at the House of Blues. Hailing from Ontario, Canada, this indie-rock band formed in 2005.

The band began humbly in a basement and grew to play huge festivals such as Coachella, Lollapalooza and the Reading and Leeds Festival.

This band has toured with some of the biggest names in indie rock including Weezer, Angels and Airwaves and Foster the People.

Their edgy post-punk revival sounds are worth the trip out to Fenway.

INSIDER TIP This show is a win-win because indie-electronic band Matt and Kim will be opening the set. Matt and Kim is a duo from Brooklyn, New York that formed in 2004. Their hit single "Daylight" skyrocketed them to fame and was certified gold by the RIAA.

Matt and Kim met in school at Pratt Institute and started dating immediately. Despite their unmusical background, the two were urged to play in a university based band, Japanther, and after that, it was history.

Japanese Prints: The Psychedelic Seventies
Museum of Fine Arts
Fenway, Boston

The first World's Fair held in East Asia, Expo '70 in Osaka, marked the beginning of an extraordinary period of prosperity for Japan. This exhibit will transport you back to the unique era that was the '70's in Japan.

INSIDER TIP Go early for dinner - stop by Tiger Mama for some delicious noodles and coconut sticky rice.

TALK LIKE A LOCAL
Know slang from the streets.

Jimmies
Sprinkles- Rainbow or Chocolate

Add some jimmies to that sundae please"
