

WELCOME TO W BOSTON

Get ready to amp-up your stay in New England's revolutionary city. Whether you're visiting for work or play, we've got you covered with the coolest, locals-only tips to maximize your stay.

LCD SOUNDSYSTEM

Agganis Arena
Friday, 12/8 @8:00PM

Bred in the heart of Brooklyn, New York, LCD Soundsystem is a perfect culmination of dance, electronic and punk. Front man and co-founder of DFA Records, James Murphy, formed LCD in 2002.

Their first single, "Daft Punk is Playing at My House" earned them their first Grammy nomination and is still their most successful single to date. Their third album, This Is Happening, secured them a spot on the top-ten list in the U.S.

In 2011, LCD Soundsystem was ready to wrap up their musical career with a blowout farewell. This included a sold out show to Madison Square Garden, a subsequent documentary "Shut Up and Play the Hits" and a live album called "The Long Goodbye". Then, in late 2016, the band reunited with a bang and has dropped their album "American Dream" in late 2017.

INSIDER TIP LCD was one of the pioneer members of Nike's "Original Run" series. Their track "45:33" was made as a perfect workout companion that will push runners to stay motivated for the full length of the run.

INSIDER ACCESS TO WHAT'S NEW/NEXT IN BOSTON

Paige Shelton
100 Stuart Street Boston, MA 02116
Paige.shelton@whotels.com

TROPHY ROOM

26 Chandler Street
South End, Boston

Founded in 2014, Trophy Room has made its mark on Boston's South End. It's the whole package. Part sports bar, part LGBTQ bar, part Mediterranean food heaven, Trophy Room is here to stay.

The cocktail list is chock full of fantastic combinations such as the "After Glow" :Ketel One vodka, Yellow Chartreuse, green tea, basil and lemon. And also the "Triple Crown" which is their take on a Moscow mule with blood orange.

Chef Peter Palumbo, a New York native with deep Sicilian roots, has curated a Mediterranean menu with a flair. One of their go-to entrees is the Trophy Room Burger that comes with bacon aioli and house cut fries. There are also a huge assortment of flatbreads, pastas and house made soups.

INSIDER TIP Trophy Room is known for their extravagant brunches. They host a Glam Brunch the last Sunday of every month that features Boston's hottest drag queens. Grab your comfiest pair of joggers and prepare for an afternoon full of mimosas, dancing to party jams and good vibes.

THE HIDDEN ART GALLERY

25 Myrtle Street
Beacon Hill, Boston

Zoe is the founder of The Hidden Art Gallery. It a privately owned gallery and the paintings are of her own and colleagues which reflect the area of Beacon Hill Boston. The paintings echo the street scenes of brick buildings, lit with gas lamps, and the views of the Charles River.

INSIDER TIP The Hidden Art Gallery also teaches creative visualization classes every Sunday. If you are an artist experiencing lack of inspiration, stop by on Sundays to get back into the flow through introspective dialogue and technique critiquing.

TALK LIKE A LOCAL
Know slang from the streets.

The Pru

The Prudential Center, a bustling high end shopping center located in Copley Square.

Did you hear they opened up an Eataly in The Pru?

Franklin BBQ
 900 E 11th Street
 Austin, TX 78702

At the top-rated barbecue in Austin, locals wait in long lines for Franklin's smoky brisket. This lunch spot opens promptly at 10AM and serves until they're sold out completely.

INSIDER TIP If you're the last lucky customer, you'll receive butcher paper with a heaping portion of ribs, brisket and sausage on the house.

Dirty Bill's
 511 Rio Grand E Street
 Austin, TX 78702

Small, dark, and always a good time, this watering hole is a local's favorite. Perfect for exhibitionist types, patrons are encouraged to dance on the bar if they're really feeling the music.

Justine's Brasserie
 4710 E 5th Street
 Austin, TX 78702

Order the classic steak frites at this hot French restaurant and bar.

INSIDER TIP Have the dashing French bartender Oliver shake you up his famous cocktail creation, Enfant Terrible. Cabo. Sedi opta volupta tquias con conse verferi tenditi corum sinciendae laborias volorenit lique pre nimped modiciis acea cori delluptas necae molesse ctempossi dellicia natiat molo dolorrum re, cus et hil int erum qui cor autaquunt officius voluptatur, sitatument omnimin velland emporib ustrum aut experfero ipiende quae dolupta quament, nes pro consedi odiatur? Veliqum necus parchit unt experore nonemo blautem illab int dolor a nus.

Uncommon Objects
 1512 S Congress Avenue
 Austin, TX 78704

Dubbed the city's biggest junk store, this massive shop houses room after room of antiques, taxidermy, knickknacks and curiosities. Wellcurated and always an adventure, this South Congress spot offers way more than just junk.

Perla's 1400
 S Congress Avenue
 Austin, TX 78704

Think you can't get a fantastic lobster roll in the middle of Texas? Think again! One of Anthony Bourdain's favorite Austin spots, Perla's is one of the best places to chill while enjoying oysters, a variety of seafood and a cool frozen drink on the oak-shaded patio.

AT THE W AUSTIN

Trace Restaurant
 4710 E 5th Street
 Austin, TX 78702

Order the classic steak frites at this hot French restaurant and bar.

INSIDER TIP Have the dashing French bartender Oliver shake you up his famous cocktail creation, Enfant Terrible.