

WELCOME TO BOSTON

Get ready to amp-up your stay in New England's most revolutionary city. Whether you're visiting for work or play, we've got you covered with the coolest, locals-only tips to maximize your stay.

Fetty Wap
Tuesday, 1/16 @7:00PM
House of Blues, Boston

Fetty Wap aka Willie Maxwell is coming to Boston to perform all of your favorite trap songs.

Fetty Wap skyrocketed to the top of the charts with his debut single "Trap Queen" in 2015 when it hit number two on the U.S. Billboard Hot 100. His two follow up singles "679" and "My Way" also ended up in the Top 10 later that year.

Growing up in New Jersey, Maxwell was born with glaucoma in both of his eyes. The doctors were able to save one of his eyes, but the other was fitted with an ocular prosthesis. This never slowed him down, he began rapping when he was 21 and hasn't stopped since.

The name "Fetty" was given to him because he was always known for making money. The "Wap" was added as a tribute to Gucci Mane's alias Gu-Wop.

INSIDER TIP Fetty Wap refers to his own musical style as "ignorant R&B" because of the combination of singing and rapping.

Station Bistro & KTV
20 Hudson Street
Boston, MA 02111

If you are looking for a fantastic way to get some dirt on your friends, bring them to Station Bistro & KTV. It is the newest hot spot for Korean karaoke located right in the middle of the city in Chinatown.

They have private rooms for you and all of your friends with bottle service, a snack menu, and all of the latest karaoke accessories.

Not only that- but they have a karaoke "happy hour" with discounted room prices before 8PM.

No longer do you need to stand in front of a giant room filled with strangers if you want to belt out Mariah's 90's hit setlist, only your closest friends.

Keep an eye out for anyone taking video. Remember, blackmail comes in many shapes and forms.

INSIDER TIP Karaoke literally means "empty orchestra" in Japanese. Its origins stem from the early 1960's.

Hito Steyerl: Liquidity Inc.
Institute of Contemporary Arts
Boston, MA 02210

Hito is an artist, filmmaker, and writer whose art speaks urgently to our digitally mediated era. In her work, she has addressed the wide-ranging effects of today's mass proliferation and dissemination of images, issues of surveillance and militarization, and the evolving functions of technology in our networked culture.

INSIDER TIP Steyerl grew up and studied art in Berlin and has won countless awards for her artistic films and writings.

TALK LIKE A LOCAL
Know slang from the streets.

Bang
 Another casual aggressive way to say "turn"

"Bang a U. ie up here"