

WELCOME TO BOSTON

Get ready to amp-up your stay in New England's most revolutionary city. Whether you're visiting for work or play, we've got you covered with the coolest, locals-only tips to maximize your stay.

Bova's Bakery
134 Salem Street
North End, Boston

Oh, Bova's. Every city has one.

Open 24hrs a day, this cannoli mecca is the perfect place to escape to if you're not quite ready for your night to end.

Bova's Bakery has been family owned and operated since 1926. They boast some of the North End's most delicious Italian baked goods. They specialize in assorted Italian cookies as well as cannolis, tiramisu ( voted #1 Tiramisu by Phatom Gourmet), and even savory foods.

Located in the heart of the North End, down a winding cobble stone street, Bova's will be packed anyday in the morning hours as well as any night after 12PM.

Although Bova's specializes in Italian pastries such as lobster tails, fogliatelle, and pizzelles, they also have traditional Sicilian pizza and calzones. All of their recipes are passed down from generation to generation, so you know it will be good.

INSIDER TIP For all of you who maybe had one too many, I would highly suggest ordering a Rice Ball. Bova's is famous for their giant arancini balls stuffed with cheese, meatballs, steak, you name it.

Nervo
Monday 7/16 @ 10PM
The Grand, Seaport District

NERVO, aka Australian born twins Miriam (Mim) and Olivia (Liv), will be circling back to Boston for another set this coming Monday.

Recently, NERVO has been nominated for 'Best Party DJ' at the inaugural World Dance Music Radio Awards. So, as you can imagine, they are flying high on success and continuing to tour worldwide.

NERVO has had a busy past couple of years. Between their residency in Ibiza, the famous Creamfields festival as well as the Miss USA Swimsuit Competition in 2016, I think it is safe to say that they have been crushing the EDM scene.

Nervo has humble beginnings. They broke the scene when they were given the opportunity to co-write a song with Kelly Rowland. Their song "When Love Takes Over", ended up not only winning a Grammy Award, but also reaching the top position on multiple charts around the world.

INSIDER TIP Originally, the Nervo twins were scouted for modeling. They were signed directly out of high school in 1999 with an Australian modeling agency, but always said that their main focus was music.

Diablo Glass School
123 Terrace Street
South End, Boston

Opened in 2001, Diablo Glass School prides itself on being open to all ages and skill levels. Not only do they have drop in classes, but they are also open to host events. They even have a Fire & Wine night every Saturday where they have a selection of wine and cheese served.

INSIDER TIP Although beautiful, glass blowing can be incredibly dangerous. In order to turn raw materials into glass, they need to be heated up to 2,400 degrees Fahrenheit.

TALK LIKE A LOCAL
Know slang from the streets.

Boston Harborfest

Yearly event that celebrates the harbor and history

Did you see the fireworks at Harborfest?
